The numbers in the figures and further figures created in the same way are called hexagonal numbers. Without proof, find a formula for the nth hexagonal number, and use it to show that 2016 is a hexagonal number.

1   6   15   28